

Name of the Course: B.A II (Compulsory English)

- The learner after the completion of the course as a compulsory subject in the program will be able to attain basic skill is self expressiveness in the target language English.
- Students also will be able to communicate clearly with confidence.
- After completion of the course students would acquire proficiency in speaking and writing skill for various professional purposes.
- To broaden the knowledge of English language of the learners.
- To expand the learner's use of correct and appropriate expression

Name of the course: B.Com 2nd (Compulsory English)

- The learner after the completion of the course as a compulsory subject in the program will be able to attain basic skill is self expressiveness in the target language English.
- Students also will be able to communicate clearly with confidence.
- After completion of the course students would acquire proficiency in speaking and writing skill for various professional purposes.
- To develop the confidence and help them learn and work more efficiently.

Name of the course: B.A. III (Communication in English and study skills.)

The learners after the completion of the course as a compulsory subject in the programme , will be able

- To attain basic skill in self-expressiveness in the target language of English.
- To communicate clearly with confidence. After sincere completion of the course students would acquire proficiency in speaking and writing skills for various professional purposes.
- To enhance the communicative abilities of the learners
- To broaden the knowledge of English language of the learners.
- To make the students self-expressive.
- To develop writing skills among the learners
- To prepare the learners to deal with soft skills
- To expand the learners use of correct and appropriate expressions.

Name Of the Course: B.A.II (English Literature)

- To acquaint learners to have a feeling of novel as a genre of literature

- To enable the students to understand the development of English prose from its conception to the present time
- To understand the different forms of prose
- To enable the students in understanding the socio and cultural background of the different era
- To understand various forms of fictions

Name of the Course: B.Com. I /B.Sc.I (Compulsory English)

- To acquaint the learners to the basics of Grammar and Communication skills, and usage of English in day to day life
- To gain knowledge through prose passages of various spheres of thought and experience
- To learn varied patterns of life and culture by studying poems of different poets from different countries
- To strengthen the learners interpretative skills through understanding of tht text
- To learn communication skills for effective communication at work places, by giving personal information, introducing oneself, seeking permission, giving opinions, etc. in the target language
- Learning basics of grammar for correct usage of the language while speaking and writing
- To prepare them to work efficiently by learning soft skills such as goal setting, leadership skills, teamwork and time management

Name of the Course: B. A. Final Subject: English Literature

- To acquaint learners to nuances of drama as a genre of literature
- To understand the mechanism of drama through famous plays like King Lear and Tughlaq and Dance Like a Man
- To introduce learners to the famous playwrights—William Shakespeare, Girish Karnad, Mahesh Dattani and their style of writing in drama.
- To critically examine and analyze plot, character, theory of catharsis in the prescribed dramas
- To understand various dramatic devices especially aside, soliloquy, monologue
- To understand literary terms related to drama especially climax,

Name of Course: B.A. III (Compulsory English)

By learning English language for six semesters, the learners are expected

- To develop proficiency in English language.
- They will learn to write effectively and grammatically correct English.
- They will be able to rectify the errors in written content and edit it for clarity.

- The learners will be able to use English language effectively and smoothly for communication in given social setting.
- They will inculcate interest as a reader for reading variety of texts written in English language and will become active readers.