

PROGRAM REPORT 2020-2021

National Level Book Review Competition

Dates: 05 Feb - 25 Feb 2021

National level Book review competition was organized by the Department of English, Shree Shivaji Arts, Commerce & Science College, Rajura, Dist. Chandrapur during Feb-March 2021.

Objectives:

- To inculcate reading habit among the students.
- To bring out the comprehensive talent and analytical power by deep study of a particular work of art.

Description:

The competition was organized for the U.G and P.G level students across the nation. Due to the pandemic, we've adopted the online mode of competition where the students/colleges were contacted through various media (WhatsApp, Email, etc.) and informed about the competition (Image attached below). They were communicated about the main objective of competition where they were required to submit their review of one of the 5 prescribed books (specified in the image below).

Around 25 participants around the nation submitted their reviews in the given time among whom the following stood at first three places:

1. Mane Sapna Tukaram, Swami Vivekananda Mahavidhyalay, Shirur, Tajband- B.A Final year
2. Apurva Arvind Nawale, IGNOU, New Delhi- B.A 1st year
3. Tejaswini Sanjay Patil, Dattajirao Kadam arts, science and commerce college, Ichalkaranji- B.Sc Final year

All the three winners were awarded with Cash prizes as a token of encouragement along with the e-Certificate and all the remaining participants were given participation e-Certificates for their efforts.

Dr. S.M. Warkad, principal, Shree Shivaji Arts, Commerce & Science College, Rajura, Dist. Chandrapur appreciated all the participants and congratulated the winners and advised to keep up the same spirit. Mr. S.V. Ramana, HoD English, Dr. S.N. Shende, Asst. professor, English took efforts in organizing the competition. Dr. Joseph T.C., Principal, Prabhakar Rao Mamulkar College, Korpana extended co-operation throughout the competition.
